CESUGA

VISAS

European Students

If you are a national of one of the following countries*, you do not need to apply for a visa. You can travel to Spain with your national identity card and/or your passport: Austria, Belgium, Bulgaria, Croatia, Cyprus, Denmark, Estonia, Finland, France, Greece, Hungary, Iceland, Ireland, Italy, Latvia, Liechtenstein, Lithuania, Luxembourg, Malta, Norway, Netherlands, Poland, Portugal, United Kingdom, Czech Republic, Romania, Sweden and Switzerland.

Once you are in Spain and you start classes at the University, it will be necessary to apply for a Certificate of Registration of Citizens of the Union at the Foreigners Office of Coruña (http://www.coruna.gal/portal/es/detalle/oficina-de-extranjeros-de-a- coruna/entidad/1149055885837?argIdioma=es) which will include your Foreign IdentityNumber (NIE), your identification number during your stay in Spain.

If you have double European nationality and a passport issued by a European country, it will not be necessary to apply for a student visa, as you will be a European citizen. The information for European students will apply.

Non-European students

If you are a non-European student, it will be necessary, before your trip to Spain, to apply for and obtain a student visa at the Spanish Consulate closest to your place of residence.

List of Spanish consulates:

If you are a student of Turkish nationality, you also need to obtain a student visa at theSpanish Embassy in Ankara or at the Spanish Consulate in Istanbul.

Once you have been accepted as a student, CESUGA will send you an acceptance letter so you can apply for a student visa at the corresponding consulate. The student visa will ensure your legal entry into our country. Once you are in Spain and start your studies at the University, you must apply for a Study Abroad Card at the Foreigners Office of A Coruña. http://www.coruna.gal/portal/es/detalle/oficina-de-extranjeros-de-a- coruna/entidad/1149055885837?argIdioma=es

The International Relations Department will explain everything in detail, in the WelcomeSession, how to submit your application.

European / non-European dual nationality

If you have dual European citizenship and a passport issued by a European country, you will not need to apply for a student visa, since you will be a European citizen. The information will be applied for European students.
